Re: Why Embassy Suites is the Perfect Hotel for Your Business Travel Needs

In today's economy, business travelers are experiencing tighter travel budgets and are being asked to streamline expenses. For many, this may mean transitioning from first-class airfare to economy, from private car service to city cabs. But when booking a hotel, business travelers can enjoy the benefits of upscale value with Embassy Suites Hotels without sacrificing quality. Embassy offers road warriors top-notch services and great value in any economic climate – here's why:

- Spacious, Luxurious Two-Room Suites: Embassy's two-room suites enable business travelers to hold meetings in their suite and gives them ample space to spread out work and personal belongings – all at the price of one, standard room.
- Complimentary, Cooked-to-Order Breakfast: Business travelers can satisfy their home-cooked-meal cravings with free cooked-to-order breakfast every morning.
- Nightly Manager's Reception: Guests can wind down from that business meeting or long flight with complimentary beverages and hors d'oeuvres every evening in the comfort of the hotel Atrium.
- PRECOR® Fitness Centers: Your workout routine does not have to suffer simply because you are traveling – Embassy gyms have the look and feel of an exclusive, private health club, complete with leading-edge PRECOR® fitness equipment and personal TV screens.
- Business Centers: Guests get complimentary access to Embassy's business centers 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to surf the web, check e-mail, print materials and fax documents.
- Concierge Services: Need help finding the perfect restaurant for a business dinner but do not know where to go in an unfamiliar city? Embassy's concierges are the perfect resources to help you navigate your way through town while on business.
- Complimentary Airport Shuttle Service: Many Embassy properties offer complimentary shuttle service to and from local airports. Refer to Embassysuites.com to find out which hotels take part in this service
